ABOUT ME

Mark is an illustrator, graphic designer and digital artist with experience spanning a wide variety of industries including public sector, technology products, business consulting, legal services, marketing support and healthcare. Supporting a wide range of clients and corporations for more than two decades he has worked with cutting edge graphic software to produce quality print, video, web and mobile designs.

With an emphasis on multimedia and interactive content, he has worked with global teams on million-dollar campaigns. His background in visual design, print and online publication, makes him the perfect choice for organizations looking to take their public facing appearance to the next level. Mark is fueled by his passion for understanding the nuances of design in both static and interactive delivery. He considers himself a 'forever student,' eager to both build on his professional skills and stay in tune with the latest digital marketing strategies through continued coursework.

Mark believes respect is earned through hard work and proven results. Contact Mark today to maximize your corporate and online presence.
